

LOCAL BREVITIES.

This is Company H's drill night.
Read H. W. Schmidt & Son's Xmas ad.

The Union Express Company wants your business.

P. B. & L. A. meeting tonight at usual time and place.

Bric-a-brac, cups, vases, tea sets for Christmas presents at K. Furnya's.

Reserved seats for "The Jilt" will be on sale this morning at Hobron's.

The barkentine S. G. Wilder brought three days later news from San Francisco.

Fine fancy and plain mixed candles for Christmas, very cheap, at "French Boss" stand.

The engagement of Miss Kate McGrew to Dr. C. B. Cooper, both of this city, has been announced.

The Gleaners' Society will hold a doll sale in Central Union Church parlors on Friday, December 11th next.

The Court of Inquiry's finding, adverse to the protest of Company B, has been approved by Col. McLean.

There was a very large audience at the Makee Island concert Sunday afternoon, the largest present for many weeks past.

Mrs. Montague Turner will entertain the members of the "Il Trovatore" Company at her home, Beretania street, Friday evening.

The Hawaiian National Band boys are still hard at work preparing for their subscription concert at the Hawaiian Hotel this week.

F. E. Lynn was arrested Saturday night for assault and battery on W. Roberts. This was another of the usual Saturday night quarrels.

La Lole Fuller, the unparalleled skirt dancer, is in San Francisco. She will pass through Honolulu on her way to China in the near future.

The report that the young man operated on last week by Dr. Ryder had died, is false. The cases operated on by him at this time are all doing well.

It is a case of breathless anxiety in many places in town just now on account of the expected announcement of one, two, and, perhaps, three more engagements.

By order of the heirs of the late W. J. Smith, James F. Morgan will sell at public auction on Saturday, December 19th, valuable city and country property. See ad.

Several residence sites in the city and at Waikiki are to be sold at auction by James F. Morgan on Saturday, December 19th. For full particulars, see advertisement.

Among the arrivals on the steamer Iwalani from Kaula ports Sunday morning were George Angus, Dr. Hutchinson, C. Strehz, O. Isenberg, A. Dreier, A. Cropp and C. H. Bishop.

In the great contest between the Olympic and Reliance Football Teams in San Francisco, November 14th, both sides scored a touchdown, making the score a tie. The game was a very slow one.

D. Kanoho was arrested Saturday night for assault and battery on Officer W. M. Peter. He was drunk and Peter arrested him. This did not accord with his wishes, and he struck the officer.

Paul Moldenhauer, night watchman on the Inter-Island wharf, while trying to extricate a pig from a very critical position beneath the hoofs of a bullock on board the Mikahala Friday, lost his footing and took a sea bath. The pig got out by its own efforts a little later.

By order of W. R. Castle, trustee and mortgagee, today at 12 o'clock (noon) W. S. Luce will sell at public auction at his salesrooms, in accordance with the provisions of a certain mortgage made by J. Naone and Maria, his wife, the property conveyed by said mortgagee, consisting of parcels of land in Kalaanui.

Today at 12 o'clock (noon), by order of W. R. Castle, trustee and mortgagee, W. S. Luce will sell at public auction at his salesrooms, in accordance with the provisions of a certain mortgage made by Charles Lind, the property conveyed by said mortgagee, consisting of certain parcels of land situate in the District of Honolulu, Oahu.

Among the pretty souvenirs of Hawaii King Bros. on Hotel street, have one of the most unique. It consists of a water color painting of a mullet tied in ti leaves. The picture is cut out the exact shape of the fish, and opens out showing a picture of Diamond Head with the words "Aloha Nui" underneath. The Advertiser is indebted for a specimen.

Old Mission House.

The Old Mission House, recently bought by A. F. Cooke, is not to be torn down to make room for a grander dwelling. From its associations it is very dear to the owner, and he has decided to put it in nearly the same condition as it was half a century ago. The roof has been re-shingled, and the verandas torn away, and will be rebuilt. Some of the old shingles had completely worn away, after the rains of 22 years had fallen on them.

Tennis Games.

Although the present time is what is called the "off season" for tennis, and most of the enthusiasts have had but little opportunity for playing their favorite game for some weeks past, on account of the short evenings, yet it is interesting to note that some good games have recently taken place between Dr. Smith of the U. S. S. Adams, who is a member of the Pacific Tennis Club, and Mr. D. Shanks, a member of the Beretania Club. On the grounds of the latter club Saturday afternoon a very interesting match took place between the above-named gentlemen, in which Mr. Shanks proved victorious.

Sixteen members and two probationers were admitted to the Methodist Church Sunday morning.

And Honest.

One shoe man will take the average $3 shoe and make it $4 and give you a discount. Then he complains of dull trade. We take the average $3 shoe and mark it plainly $2, and sell dozens of them a day, and every pair of shoes we sell is guaranteed. Got to be good shoes or they can't get in here or go out either.
